

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Andean Fire

Phragmipedium Andean Fire

In the course of our many lifetimes, the trials and challenges we have faced will often have left their mark. The deeper the experience in crisis, the greater the impact on our being which can persist through time and lives. The natural courage and sense of purpose of the soul may become dimmed, unless these deep memories can be healed. Andean Fire helps one to regain the soul's natural courage, which provides the wind in the sails for pursuing our purpose.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Being in Grace

Ascocenda Princess Mikasa

A large and vibrantly purple vandaceous orchid, the colour of the blooms is central to the action of this essence. This essence is in part a cleansing of one's old emotional pain that can appear as physical distress or energetic blocks. Its healing process goes deeply into the emotional centre of the brain; it also releases tension from the kidney meridian. At an enhancing level it helps one to realize the regal aspects of the soul, and to acknowledge those qualities in others as well oneself.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Carnival

Laeliocattleya hybrid

Rhythmic and passionately sensual. Even the very large blooms suggest the sensual nature of this essence. Speak its name with a Brazilian accent... Very good for those who are overly intellectual and live at some distance from their body. Move into the body and its vibrant senses. Carnival helps to remove you from the stress of a busy day when you arrive home, and to remember to enjoy life more. Brings a glow of etheric light to the skin. Softens the boundaries between people, allowing a friendlier flow of interaction.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Serene Overview

(formerly Devata)

Comparetia speciosa

Gain a serene overview and perspective on life. This essence honours the spiritual potential of the mature female aspect of the soul, the beautiful heart warming the world with its noble presence. This spiritual charisma can be found in our nobler qualities: quietly regal, insistent but not aggressive, serene. Helps us to act with integrity and without arrogance.

“Beauty is Inner Truth made Perfect”.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Golden Radiance

Phragmipedium St. Ouen

To bring one into awareness of the radiance of one's Inner Light, the "Ground of Being". Golden Radiance honours the spiritual path above all else. This essence opens the throat chakra and connects to a source of inner wisdom which appears as golden light within the inner chamber of the heart chakra. When the inner chamber opens, its "light" can ascend into the throat chakra. Fundamentally not a remedy, but rather an enhancer for developing a spiritual perspective of everyday life. One of our most universal essences.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Joyous Purification

Jumellea major

Purifying the root chakra for both men and women. For men it can initiate them into the feminine understanding of purity and innocence. Whereas we often think of purification as a painful or arduous process, the action of this essence is joyful. If a woman's sexuality has been abused then this essence will help re-establish the natural innocence of the root chakra in a natural rise of white etheric light. This light moves very efficiently and effectively, allowing one to work to heal the issues that have been held subconsciously in the root chakra.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Just Me

Cochlioda noezliana

Celebrate your unique personality without being influenced by projections and expectations of others. It is good to accept our limitations not as negative identities but as momentary states of our development on the journey in creating personal self-definition. The world is in need of more characters. Very good for children who have not felt loved, or who are teased by peers for being 'different'. Helpful for adults who had that experience when young.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Life Direction (Lanata)

Scaphosepalum swertifolium

Picture the drawing of a bowstring to establish the direction of an arrow's flight. So it is in our lives that our goals and our life's direction is best achieved by stepping back deeply within ourselves. The hand pulls back and we make contact with the centre of the chest, the heart. Being centred in this way guarantees our best shot. Activates the heart and throat chakras. Works well with Positive Outcome and Songline.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Laughing Butterflies

Laelia anceps

This essence is very playful, very forgiving, a large belly laugh from the happy Buddha. Leave your troubles behind, effortlessly and smoothly swirling away. Excellent for anyone who is prone to take themselves too seriously or for those who feel emotionally stuck. Laughing Butterflies enters into the solar plexus like two people dancing together in perfect harmony. Think of Ginger Rogers & Fred Astaire spiralling across the floor in each other's arms. Affects the brow and throat chakras, as well as the eyes.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Mercurtio

Pleurothallis restrepioides

Poise, humour and verbal repartee are the hallmarks of Mercurtio, the marvelous character in the play, Romeo and Juliet. Good for those who are taking things (or themselves) too seriously; good for students who are being bullied. Stand back from the drama, get the overview, like the director of a play and watch the interplay between actors and dialogue. Enjoy the movement of words and meaning. Brings white light into the eyes, therefore it is recommended for anyone who reads a great deal, or who spends significant time in front of computer screens.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Messenger of the Heart

Phragmipedium Grouville

Give voice to the heart and communicate what you are feeling, without fear of the consequences for speaking your truth. To help become more aware of what is deeply valued within the heart. If love is in your heart, speak of it. Why keep it hidden? Picture a messenger on a white horse, galloping along in your heart spirited by the desire to be honest and true. Connects the Heart & Throat Chakras.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Positive Outcome

Scaphosepalum gibberosum

Maintains undeterred optimism accompanied by remarkable stamina. With this essence the goal of any project is never out of sight, “like a pole-vaulter visualizing going over the bar before the run up to the big leap.” A remarkably important teaching comes from this very small orchid, regarding the way in which our mental outlook forms and gives rise to our daily experience of the circumstances of the world and our life. See the opportunities that each moment presents; the potential is there to be realized if we enable it to blossom. Don’t simply look at the rain: turn your head and see the rainbow.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Protective Presence

Dendrobium spectabile

This essence is good for people who are travelling to places where personal safety is challenged. Useful in times of major change (such as moving house or career changes) to provide continuity and protection. It helps one to re-connect with inner strength. This orchid bears a resemblance to the protective “wrathful deities” of Tibetan Buddhism with the sense that a spiritual presence says “I go before you”. Can aid in discovering that actual protection comes from realizing the true nature of Being, which we find deep within. Found in several of our combinations.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Renewing Life

Phragmipedium Carol Kanzer

A very gentle, quiet essence, yet profound in its ability to reach many levels at once. Clears ancient negative energetic patterns at the cellular level via the 1st, 8th, 10th and 12th chakras, renewing one's inherent health. The root chakra governs cellular patterning and when combined with the higher chakra action of the 10th chakra (the Source of White Light) & the 12th chakra (our connection to the wholeness of the universe), it makes this essence a strong candidate for healing at that level. Very helpful when added to skin creams. See also Narnia Sphagnum Moss essence.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Rising to the Call of Beauty

Paphiopedilum Lady Isabel

This essence is about aligning and identifying with beauty. As modern societies have distanced themselves from both natural and inner beauty, dissonance and self-degradation have followed. This has influenced us in ways that distract us from the simple beauty in nature and in ourselves. What are the innate properties of beauty? Proportion, integrity, harmony and respect for the forces and mathematical dimensions found in sacred geometry. When beauty is a guide, the results of our actions naturally and harmoniously follow Universal Principles. Beauty's strength will banish evil and ugliness from her presence.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Sacral Release

Dendrobium Prapin

Sacral Release provides vital energy to help with the release process and breaks a vicious cycle of low energy and low achievement. It helps to ground and release tensions stemming from subconscious patterns held in the 2nd chakra. These drop down to the earth. The energy in this essence affirms you are safe, strong and healthy. A key essence for the energy system of the pelvic region; follow it after a few weeks with the combination Sacral Regulator.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Songline

Paphiopedilum Honey

To help one attune to one's unique spiritual path, that path which is yours and yours alone. How many steps forward on that path do we take in a lifetime? How easily we become distracted from our deep inner path. Songline conveys a song of Love. By helping to re-establish the halo of light over the crown chakra, it awakens one to the responsibility of sound and speech, and helps in being true to oneself - an attunement to deep vows. Connects one as well to the sounds & choirs of the angelic realm.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Unveiling Affection

Phragmipedium Hanne Popow

For loving & nurturing oneself, as well as opening our hearts with affection to those around us. Good for anyone who has ever felt emotionally bereft, or who has had difficulty valuing & caring for themselves. To hold affection in our hearts, for both self & others. This very first of the Living Tree Orchid Essence range is potentially of benefit to most of us. If we are able to love ourselves and nurture ourselves, we cannot help but love and nurture others more deeply and fully.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

White Beauty

Phalaenopsis aphrodite

Envelopes one's aura with unconditional love, akin to that of a mother for a newborn child. Nurturing & de-stressing. Refreshing & mildly relaxing. Can be used as a post-trauma spray for both people & animals. May also be combined with Unconditional Snuggles for children who are waking with fears in the night. As a spray White Beauty is wonderful for easing tensions in the Crown Chakra.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Winged Gold

Grammatophyllum scriptum

An ancient Chinese gong sounds its tone, awakening one to an inner calling, to the fire of the soul's mission and destiny. The weaving of the tapestry of our myriad lives is completed in the utter gracefulness of the dance of the soul which knows its wholeness. Meditate on the peace of this essence to discover the fecundity of the sacred and the flowing purpose of our lives. An essence to help the imagination touch the depths of being and become fertile once more.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Angelic Canopy

Laeliocattleya Angel Love

Balm for the troubled soul. If you can only have one of the Living Tree Orchid Essences, this one should be seriously considered, as it is so helpful in these times. Angelic Canopy brings nurturing to those who are in grief, despair or who have lost hope. Releases the tension from the flight vs. fight response, thus helping to increase one's sense of security by realigning to the values of life. Good for space clearing & cleansing crystals.

"All things can be done in Grace."

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Behold the Silence

Comparetia macroplectron

Provides a pathway to enter into the profound silence of universal being and invites us into a new relationship with the future. As the future becomes more and more present in the depth of our inner silence, the past goes back into itself so that we no longer hold the past in the present. In this way our former actions or karmas dissolve, what remains is unobstructed action. Good for meditation, and for becoming aware of the sacredness of nature. Become aware of this essence's silent gentle flow, its deep healing movement of consciousness.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Being in Time

Phragmipedium Ainsworthii

Brings the body into harmony with Nature's time. Very important to enable therapists to bring the client into contact with the body. Helps those who are reluctant to incarnate fully into "the here and now". Being in Time does so by harmonising the body's etheric cycles with those same cycles in Nature. This is a calibration to a flow which helps one to manage one's time better, especially when there is the sense of having too much to do and too little time to do it in. Great for jet-lag. The body can immediately harmonise and integrate with the time-zone of the local area no matter what the distance or direction of travel.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Boundless Peace

Anguloa virginalis

Imagine a translucent jellyfish pulsing or champagne bubbles streaming to the surface. Experience a sense of buoyancy, floating freedom and ease. Great for relieving tension in the frontal lobes of the brain due to too much mental work. Boundless Peace opens our consciousness to active and productive dreaming. Space takes on a gentle shape with delicate edges. Great for men who need to balance an overly-masculine temperament, as this is one of the most yin essences in the range.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Clear Mind

Aeranthus grandiflora

Clears and calms the mind offering clarity of perception and reflection. Eases mental tension from the mid-brain: the 'Mental Break' essence. Think of the clarity of a pale & clear gemstone; the calm of a cool, clear and still winter's night. A full moon reflected on a quiet lake.

Note: this essence was made with an aquamarine gemstone as well as with the orchid.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Clearing the Way/ Self Belief

Phragmipedium Don Wimbur

Strengthens the knowing that you have the inner and outer spiritual resources to move forward with projects and goals. A wonderful “can do” essence. This essence helps to relax tension in the 8th chakra, a result of trying too hard to be perfect and stay in control of everything in our lives. Clarifies the petals of the crown chakra. Very helpful for those who are diffident, lacking in self-confidence, or simply shy.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Core of Being

Nanodes medusae

A very important essence to realign to our spiritual axis. This essence enters into one's causal body, which is the "Spiritual White Light". It appears as the central axis, a small-diameter shaft of light running parallel to and just in front of the spine. It is the origin of the chakra system. In a gentle yet profound movement, the essence helps us to align to the higher chakras that compose and create the causal body Light shaft and surrounding causal and celestial auric fields. In doing so, the etheric, astral and mental bodies harmonise, calming yet also strengthening.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Crown of Consciousness

Masdevallia reginae

To experience this essence in its profound depth, sit quietly with your eyes closed for a while. The orchid's action in opening up the crown chakra is simply the first stage of its invitation, its call to your soul to enter its embodiment of the Consciousness of Creation, of the Living Word of God. Find that stillness & humility within to approach the Heart of Mystery, to enter the Shrine of Shrines.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Direct Vision

Paphiopedilum liemianum

Potentially a powerful experience of the 3rd eye, so can be useful for vision quests. This is the same orchid that made the essence New Vitality, but six months earlier when the blooms were in full alignment of direction, giving an intensity of energy to this essence. Use with care. Useful for meditation practices.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Hara to Heart

Bulbophyllum lobbii

Very good for people who are reluctantly incarnate. This essence brings energy down to the 2nd chakra (Hara), then up through the solar plexus and into the heart chakra. Helps eliminate conflicting emotions. Helps one to be incarnate with a sense of purpose. This essence infuses the halo with a diamond-like appearance, indicating higher chakra activity. NB. Take this essence two times within a ten minute period for best effect the first time you take it, and then wait a day or two before repeating.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Heart of Light

Phragmipedium Grouville

Provides a liberating feeling as it launches our emotional body out of old patterns of defensiveness into Universal Connectedness to be experinced as an on-going pattern of endless flow. Rapidly releases emotional armour of the heart, expanding the chest, allowing the heart chakra to extend back and re-connect to the central axis of the aura. The 12th chakra then awakens our memory of our unique spiritual inception into the Time/Space continuum. The 15th chakra opens as well to the residence of "Universal Order", the home of sacred geometry.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Internal Cleansing

Bulbophyllum echinolabium

This essence is concerned with the internal cleansing of the body. Working away without fanfare, it helps to clear up our etheric body's 'residuals' - little packets of leftovers. Acts on the energetic pathways of the throat, stomach, large intestines and liver, assisting with detoxification. Now that our essences are in the very dark violet Miron bottles, this essence is in our full kit without a foil wrapping (which it had before due to its very distinct character). See also Settling with a Smile if you are drawn to this essence.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Knights' Cloak

Pleurothallis gargantua

In dark times it may well be prudent to cloak one's light to enable one to carry the knowledge of inner truth without risk of drawing the attention of negative forces. This essence provides protection to help one to remain concealed from those who may threaten, bringing a sense of both invisibility and invincibility. Strengthens the back of the Throat Chakra, which is one of the first points of vulnerability in psychic attack. Walk past the black flames of the desert without being harmed; ride through the night concealed by your etheric dark cloak.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Liberation / Deception

Paphiopedilum gratixianum

How do we fool ourselves by projecting what we desire and not truly need? What is true liberation? Is it to be found in political expression or trance dancing? Walking the inner path, how do we fool ourselves in our quest for freedom? Wherein do we find the Buddha? This essence is about developing our mental processes, for discerning the self-created pitfalls of our judgement. Secondly this essence also helps one's endurance, as well as cleansing, strengthening and protecting the aura. It would help with any new venture as well.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Light of My Eye

Paphiopedilum Memoria Richard Ong

This essence wants to help us 'see beyond the veil', to see light beyond light. We tend to live with a veil of our own creation: seeing things as we wish them to be, rather than as they are. This orchid brings etheric light directly into one's eyes; enhances the visual cortex & opens the third eye & Ajna point. A sense of inner knowing develops from the link it helps one to create with the higher chakras. This essence was made with the help of our friend David Carson.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

New Vitality

Paphiopedilum liemianum

The plant from which this essence was made shows its gift of stamina very clearly in that each bloom lasts for several weeks, presenting in succession on the flower spike; and each spike of the plant can be in bloom for a year or more. Gives gentle energy and an increase in stamina under circumstances of long-standing tiredness and exhaustion. New Vitality can give an energy boost to see one through these difficult periods. Included in several of our energizing combinations.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Guardian of the Inner Journey

Paphiopedilum Helvetia

Brings the courage to move beyond the fears which can inhibit one's spiritual journey. A deeply serious essence, concerned with the depth of your life's path. Take it to enhance your meditation practice. This essence is paired energetically with Walking to the Earth's Rhythm, which is best taken after meditating with Guardian of the Inner Journey.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Purity of Heart

Paphiopedilum Armeni White

Useful for the stress of feeling there is not enough time. Like the slow, clear, well-spaced tones of a sitar, this essence conveys the understanding that there is “time enough for anything”. Epitomises the Kaffa type of the Indian Ayurvedic system, which is slow and unhurried, never compelled to rush. Brings white light to the upper heart chakra, the brow and sacral chakras, and into the blood.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Pushing Back the Night

Bulbophyllum Elizabeth Ann 'Buckleberry'

Helps elevate our thoughts to the point where we can see the Sacred in life. An essence to help heal the destiny of humanity. Not only does it aid our own personal growth, but also invites the Light of the Future to Take Back the Night. Blockages in the bai-hui centre are pushed out of the auric field, which enables us to extend an awareness vertically into a temple within a celestial domain. In this way the microcosm affects the macrocosm. In this time when many negative karmas are being released upon the world, this essence is especially important for helping people not to be distracted from their spiritual purpose.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Releasing Karmic Patterns

Masdevallia Flying Colours

Releases karmic patterns which are held in the eighth chakra. Amongst other aspects, the eighth chakra indicates how spiritual knowledge & power have been misused in the past. This essence can make us feel like we are spiralling out into the cosmos, thus it can feel intimidating due to the feeling of being taken up and away. Helps free up rigid belief patterns or merely parroted ideas held in the eighth chakra. Helps us to use & choose words wisely when we speak.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Secret Wisdom

Phragmipedium wallisii

Secret Wisdom brings our focus to the depth of the Inner Divine which is found in the Inner Chamber of the Heart Chakra, which lies just beneath the heart chakra. The orchid's embodiment of serenity & silence activates the chakras in the head, and then directly awakens the eleventh chakra. This transcendental chakra offers us perception based on compassion and wisdom, honouring "self as other & other as self". Recommended particularly for those consciously traveling their spiritual path, as the teaching of this essence is of the highest order.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Serendipity

Paphiopedilum Predatious

Very helpful when one is bogged down with too many responsibilities or just feeling stuck. This essence works to align one's preparedness to move into action with deeper dimensions of one's being. Helps bring new insights into meditation. Picture a frog just a millisecond before it jumps. Serendipity is a helpful antidote for those who feel they are in a rut.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Settling with a Smile

Paphiopedilum Golden Dollar

Creates a calm and quiet joy. Helps the energetic lining of the stomach, and the etheric activity of the liver and gall bladder. Good to take after festive indulgences. Helps with emotional upset (as this is a cheerful orchid), giving one a sense of security. When children are studying, this essence will help to maintain focus. Consider also Internal Cleansing, as both work on the etheric energies of the intestinal system.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Shiva's Trident

Dendrobilum magnum

This essence opens the yang polarity of the meridian system via the baihui point on the top of the head, bringing in a spiralling, very active energy. This essence is to some degree the masculine counterpart to Serene Overview, where we go inside to rediscover the Divine Feminine. The realignment to our spiritual purpose found at the outermost level of the universe opens the wisdom aspect of the crown chakra. Useful for people with issues with their fathers or other male authority figures, to help them to align to their own inner masculine wisdom & power.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Totem

Paphiopedilum William Mathews 'Knobcreek'

Within the circle there is boundless strength, knowledge, and affirmation of the goodness that lies at the Heart of Mother Earth and Father Sky. We can with confidence call upon or discover our Power Animals when using this essence. Find also the clarity, strength and stillness of the timeless heart. This essence helps us to step into the Hoop of all Nations – the Nations of Animals, of Peoples, of Galaxies.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Unconditional Snuggles

Paphiopedilum Snowbird

A gentle, comforting, lasting embrace. Great for adults at the end of a tough day. Good for children at any time, and especially if waking with night fears. For children as well can be combined with White Beauty to give them reassurance that they are fully loved. A key essence in addressing imbalances and blockages in the pelvic region (see the body-map cards of the 2nd pack of these photo cards).

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Unicorn

Gongora dresslerri

Take a focused, committed and unfailing action. Meet that outer threat not with aggression but with the clarity & certainty of a positive outcome. Highly recommended for emergencies, major crises or when one is truly threatened. This essence helps us to avoid distraction, or giving our power away to a source of trouble or potential harm. Clears the energetic pathways of the head and into the brain by opening the Da-zhui point on the 7th cervical vertebra. Keywords: Focused & Protective Action, Unquestioning Confidence.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Walking to the Earth's Rhythm

Paphiopedilum St. Swithin

This essence works specifically to repair very old ruptures within the etheric matrix of the throat chakra. It is also very gently grounding, so that we are walk in harmony with the rhythm of the Earth herself. This is a calming and soothing essence, good for helping one to gently come back to earth after deep meditations, for example after taking Guardian of the Inner Journey - which was made just weeks before this essence. Also helps to free us from negative beliefs and archetypes - see also Shadow Warrior.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Wisdom of Compassion with Gold

Phalaenopsis Sussex Silk

There are two forms of this essence, one with and the other without essence of 24 karat Gold. This form is more appropriate for helping remedial circumstances, for example if someone tends towards self-destructive cycles. They need compassion for themselves first, and the gold helps ensure that this groundwork of the heart's understanding is taken on board. Follow up after a few weeks with the non-gold form of Wisdom of Compassion.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Wisdom of Compassion

Phalaenopsis Sussex Silk

This orchid called out gently & clearly for an essence to be made, with its message of compassion for all beings. Made on the full moon anniversary of the Buddha's enlightenment. Acts first on the ajana centre, a small intense point between the brows, a major point of spiritual manifestation. Encircling the head with a protective energy it finally enters the crown chakra. Once the "palace" of the crown is secure, the essence enters the heart chakra, evoking the Light of a Golden Lotus in full bloom . In meditation this essence is able to reach deeply into the portal of the heart chakra. Its transformative effect brings to the heart feelings of joy & eternal optimism, & compassion for all beings.

With Gratitude

Several people played a role in the LTOE coming into being. Andreas Korte of Germany was the first person in the essence community to draw attention to the special energetic qualities of orchids, and how they act upon the chakras above the body. Shabd-sangeet Khalsa of the Dancing Light Orchid Essences pioneered the making of essences with orchids grown in greenhouses - and was also the person who helped Don to become interested in growing orchids. Peter Tadd provided invaluable perception and insight. Our thanks also to Drs. Barnao of the Living Essence of Australia for their development of a non-cutting method we incorporated into our own making process, & for their pioneering work with flower photo cards. Also to Don's parents Reid and Peggy Dennis for the camera that made all the difference. To Pierre-Loup DeCam for his help on label design & water chemistry. To Sabina Pettit, Daniel Mapel, Judy Griffin, Sandra Epstein, Gerard Wolf, Bram & Miep Zaalberg, Paolo Marciori, Kathrin Bateman, Ann & Barbara Callaghan, Star Riparetti and Tanmaya for the friendship & support over the years. Also to Dom & Natalie for joining the dance. Our thanks to Wendy Jones, Dr. Brito-Babapulle, Liz Kinsey, Carol Rudd, Linda Jeffrey, Kristy Walker and the late Mo Rawlins and Gwen Balmer, as well as so many of our other wonderful friends & customers. My deepest gratitude to Heather, who embodies so much of the light which the orchids wish to share with us. And lastly to my wife Emma Rennie Dennis for her love & laughter & understanding. - Don

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Using the Cards

There are numerous ways to work with or use these cards. In effect they are tools for the intuition, and therefore we are certain that myriad uses are still to be discovered. But in quietly flipping through the cards on a given day, notice which cards seem to appeal to you most strongly, or create an especially strong response. Then read the information for that orchid, and you may see reasons why you were drawn to it. Work with that essence or essences for a few days or a week. Or have all the cards upside down on a table, and pick one or two with the eyes closed, and see what gentle wisdom the orchids wish to offer to you today.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Higher Alignment

The gifts and the intentions of the orchids are fundamentally about helping us in our alignment to the higher purposes of Being. The star shown overleaf is one way of contemplating the various domains of action of each orchid essence. Each area of our lives needs to be in balance and healthy for our spiritual potential to be realized. Protection we might say as well is 'advisable'. The deepest protection arises from understanding that Being, beyond time and space, is another way to describe Universal Love. And it is this which manifests in myriad aspects of Beauty as the orchids and other flowering plants of Nature on this Earth.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Several people have played important roles over the years since 1998 (when the first of the essences was made) in bringing the Living Tree Orchid Essences into being: Don Dennis, Heather DeCam, Natalie Shaw, Dominic Jones, Emma Rennie Dennis, Dr. Adrian Brito-Babapulle and Peter Tadd. Rona Allan, Jennifer Brown, June Watson and Tracey McSporran have all given very important support in our office & premises. To various orchid growers who spend their lives ensuring orchids are looked after, from whom we have acquired our orchids over the years, we also owe a deep debt of gratitude.

And to Don's parents Reid & Peggy Dennis, who have helped the enterprise grow, we thank them from the bottom of our hearts.

Living Tree Orchid Essences

Seminars

Each orchid essence is an embodiment of the profound consciousness of a particular orchid hybrid or species. To appreciate the depth of their being we recommend giving them time to communicate with you. One very helpful means of enabling that to happen is by attending our 7-day residential seminar, taught by Don on the Isle of Gigha in Scotland. The 7 days are a journey of the spirit, and a healing & lightening process. The orchids invite you to experience their state of being, in the protective and nurturing environment.
